

For: Immediate Release

From: Wilma Asch 860-388-2871 wilmaasch@gmail.com

Re: TENOR SOLOIST for March 22 Concert, Cappella Cantorum

The MasterWorks Chorus of Cappella Cantorum will include Tenor Fredrick Goff singing the Benedictus in a trio with Soprano Patricia Schuman and Baritone Christopher Grundy from Schubert's "Mass in G" in concert on Sunday, March 22, 3:00 PM at Saint Mark Evangelist Roman Catholic Church, 222 McVeagh Road, Westbrook, CT. The concert also includes the Faure "Requiem."

Mr. Goff has been heard throughout Connecticut in appearances with several professional organizations including Eastern Connecticut Symphony Chorus, New Britain Chorale and Cappella Cantorum's Mens Chorus. He sang with Cappella's MasterWorks Chorus at Carnegie Hall in a performance of the Verdi "Requiem" under the direction of John Rutter.

Both Fredrick and his wife Ralene sing with Cappella Cantorum.

For tickets, $25, and additional information, go online at CappellaCantorum.org or call 860-577-2950, tickets at the door are $28. A reception follows the performance